- 1 A. To engage the universities and state agencies in
- 2 working up cooperative agreements between the
- 3 company, the state, and the university.
- 4 Q. Okay. And a few moments ago, you mentioned that
- 5 you did not have the background in the
- 6 pharmaceutical industry; is that correct?
- 7 A. I did.
- 8 Q. What do you consider your background to be?
- 9 A. Rather a generalist.
- 10 Q. What kind of generalist?
- 11 A. In business, project management, and program
- 12 management, and financial matters.
- 13 Q. Had you been employed anywhere before Bentley
- 14 Pharmaceuticals?
- 15 A. Yes.
- 16 Q. Okay. Where were you employed before Bentley
- 17 Pharmaceuticals?
- 18 A. I was employed at SAIC, which is short for
- 19 Science Applications International Corporation.
- 20 Q. And for how long were you employed at SAIC?
- 21 A. Approximately three years.
- 22 Q. And what was your position at SAIC?
- 23 A. I was an information technology manager.
- 24 Q. And what were your responsibilities as

Page 12

- 1 Q. And what were your responsibilities as a program
- 2 manager?
- 3 A. To manage a group of -- varied anywhere from ten
- 4 to eighteen people in support of a government
- 5 project for what we called EDMICS, which was the
- 6 Engineering Data Management Information Control
- 7 System. It was an engineering and high-tech
- 8 system for automating engineering drawings
- 9 throughout all components of the services.
- 10 Q. And what were the main clients that you had at
- 11 General Scientific Comoration?
- 12 A. The main client was the -- it was through the
- 13 Naval Air Systems Command initially, which spun
- 14 off into a joint program. So it was a
- 15 multiservice agency referred to as JEDMICS,
- 16 Joint Engineering Data Management Information
- .17 Control System.
- 18 Q. And before you were at General -- or how long
- 19 were you at General Scientific Corporation?
- 20 A. About five -- a little over five years.
- 21 Q. And before you were at General Scientific
- 22 Corporation, were you employed?
- 23 A. I was in the U.S. Navy. There was one more
- 24 short period of employment prior to that for a

- information technology manager at SAIC?
- 2 A. My responsibilities were to support the
- 3 information technology director for the
- 4 Government at Fort Belvoir, Virginia.
- 5 Q. And what support did that consist of as
- 6 information technology director?
- 7 A. It consisted of a multitude of enterprise-type
- 8 support functions for the agency, which was the
- 9 Defense Logistics Agency. Brought them through
- 10 the Y2K debacle. The nature of the job changed
- with time, but I was an on-site support
 representative working with a defense
- 13 contractor, but on site with the Government.
- 14 Q. And that was with the Department of Defense?
- 15 A. Yes.
- 16 Q. And before you were employed as an information
- 17 technology manager at SAIC, were you employed?

- 18 A. At General Scientific Corporation.
- 19 Q. And what did -- I'm sorry. I didn't mean to cut
- 20 you off.
- 21 A. No. Go ahead.
- 22 Q. What was your position at General Scientific
- 23 Corporation?
- 24 A. I was a program manager.

- Page 13
- 1 six-month employment with a -- if I can remember

- 3 stint. Another defense contractor in the
- 4 Washington, D.C. area.
- 5 Q. Do you recall the name of that contractor?
- 6 A. It'll come to me in a minute.
- 7 Q. Okay. In the Navy, did you hold a position or a
- 8 rank?
- 9 A. Yes.
- 10 Q. What was your rank?
- 11 A. I was a commander, which is an O-5 is the rank.
- 12 Q. And what year did you leave the Navy?
- 13 A. February 1st, 2000 not 2000. I should know
- 14 this. I think it was '98. No, it couldn't have
- 15 been '98. I was employed with them --
- 16 Q. So far you've said --
- 17 A. '91. I'm sorry. '91. There we go. February
- 18 1st, 1991.
- 19 Q. So you left the Navy February 1st, 1991; is that
- 20 correct?
- 21 A. Yes.
- 22 Q. And what were your duties as a commander in the
- 23 U.S. Navy?
- 24 A. Varied over time. The last position was working

And I'm not asking you to do the math on that. What value would you attach to the stock options? That's really difficult to say. You have a strike price for options, and the value could be a lot or it could be zero. So and you really cannot answer that question as to value. Has your compensation increased since the year 2000?

- A. Sure, some spoke firmly, with resolve. 3
- Q. Who do you recall speaking firmly, with resolve? 4
- A. Probably everyone. 5
 - MS. ABREU: Objection, time frame.
- 7 A. From time to time, everyone -- every member of
- the management meeting, including myself. 8
- Q. Do you recall which subjects you felt you needed 9 10 to speak firmly on, with resolve?
- A. They weren't subject related. My part in that 11
- 12 was more of a facilitator role to not let things
- 13 get too far out of hand or off track or too far
- 14 on a tangent from what we were there to discuss.
- Q. When you say out of hand, what do you mean? 15
- 16 A. Just spending too much time on a particular
- 17 topic, too much nonproductive discussion, that
- 18 type of thing.
- Q. Would subjects ever come up other than the 19
- 20 subjects listed on the template of projects?
- A. Periodically, yes. 21
- 22 Q. Did you recall those -- do you recall what those
- 23 subjects were?
- A. No, I can't recall specifically.

- 1 projects?
- 2 A. Yes, or I would offer it up for deletion if
- 3 there was no more action associated with that
- 4 particular item or if it was overcome by events
 - or whatever.
- 6 Q. And did you delete those items during the actual
- 7 management meetings?
- 8 A. It was a paper-based thing. I would cross them
- 9 out.

11

- 10 Q. Would you bring or -- did you bring those
 - templates of projects to the meetings
- 12 themselves?
- 13 A. Yes.
- 14 Q. How many copies of the templates of projects did
- 15 you bring to the meetings?
- 16 A. Nine to ten. Enough to cover the people
- 17 attending.
- 18 Q. Did you retain templates of projects after the
- 19 meetinas?
- 20 A. Yes.
- 21 Q. Where did you retain those templates of
- 22 projects?
- 23 A. Primarily on my computer and the company network
- 24 drive where I stored my files.

- 4 Q. And would you include those if directed?
- 5 A. Sure, ves.
- 6 Q. And who would direct you to include those, those
- 7 other subjects?
- 8 A. Generally, in most cases, it would be Jim Murphy
- 9 himself would direct that they be included on
- 10 the report. From time to time, others would as

- 20 Q. When did you remove items from the template of

- Q. Okay. You testified a few moments ago that you 6
- 7 would bring nine to ten copies of the templates
 - of projects to the meeting. Were those paper
- 9 copies?
- 10 A. Yes.
- 11 Q. And you also testified that if directed during a
- meeting to remove an item, you would cross it 12
 - out on your paper copy; is that correct?
- 14 A. Uh-huh.
- Q. Did you retain that paper copy after the 15
 - management meeting?
- A. Only for a period of time as necessary to 17
- incorporate the updates and changes in the 18
- subsequent template, which would be used and 19
- 20 distributed as an after-action report to follow
- up on the action items. And subsequently, that 21

- Q. When you sent Mr. Murphy draft summary reports 10 for Bentley Pharmaceuticals' board, did you send
- 11 them to him by e-mail or on paper?
- 12 A. Both.
- Q. And would he send them back to you with markups 13
- 14 via e-mail or in paper?
- A. Both. 15
- 16 Q. And how would he mark up an e-mail or how did he
- 17 mark up his e-mails?
- A. Normally, he would add or cross out text, add 18
- 19 text, highlight it in different colors.
- Q. And in paper, how would he send you corrections? 20
- 21 A. Just a standard markup if it were paper. I
- 22 think most of them were done by e-mail. There
- 23 may have been from time to time they were done
- 24 on paper copy.
